

Public Health
Prevent. Promote. Protect.

The Georgia Division of Public Health
Presents a Symposium on

“Improving the Prevention and Treatment of Rabies and Tetanus Through Utilization of CDC Guidelines and State-Wide Resources”

Date: Tuesday, June 30, 2009

Location: Emory Conference Center Hotel

Time: 9:00am - 12:30pm

Registration Deadline: June 22, 2009

Keynote Speakers

Charles Rupprecht, VMD, PhD – Chief, Rabies Program, Centers for Disease Control, Atlanta, GA

Jennifer Wright, DVM – Veterinary Epidemiologist, Centers for Disease Control, Atlanta, GA

Dana Cole, DVM, DACVIM, PhD – Division of Public Health, Georgia Department of Human Resources, Atlanta, GA

Panel Members

Experts from the National Hispanic Medical Association, American Academy of Pediatrics, Emergency Medicine, Georgia Poison Center, Georgia Division of Public Health, and a Local/County Health Department Epidemiologist

Who should attend this symposium?

Statewide Health Department Officials

Public Hospital Officials

Emergency Department Officials

Healthcare Professionals engaged in Post-exposure Prophylaxis of Rabies and Tetanus

Patient Advocacy Organizations

Meeting Location

Emory Conference Center Hotel

1615 Clifton Road

Atlanta, Georgia 30329

Phone: 404-712-6000

Meeting Partner

Talecris Biotherapeutics

You may register the following ways:

1. Online - Please visit www.regonline.com/June30Register
2. Via Fax - Please return the completed Registration below and return to Robin Jennings at 919-545-0361
3. Via Email - Please complete the completed registration form below and email to robin@rbendeavors.com

Registration Form

First Name	Last Name	Professional Designation
Business Phone		Business Fax (if available)
Email Address(Required for Confirmation Purposes)
Institution/Hospital/Practice/Health Department
Street Address – (no PO Boxes)
City	State Georgia	Zip

HY07-0309